

Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that the land we now call California is the ancestral lands of the over 109 Nations, Tribes, and Peoples. The Indigenous Peoples of this area have a deep, reciprocal relationship with the land as its original stewards. Their ways, methods, and traditions have contributed to California's rich biodiversity and have impacted the transportation network for the state. We stand with Indigenous communities and are committed to partnering and advocating for a more equitable and sustainable future. Our transportation network not only connects us to families, friends, work and leisure, it connects us to our past and future. We embrace our past with a future commitment to inclusiveness and equity for everyone who calls this state home.

Community Agreements

- Wait to be Recognized by the Chair: To maintain an orderly and productive discussion, please wait for the Chair to acknowledge you before speaking.
- One Mic: Only one person should speak at a time. This ensures that every voice is heard and that the committee can focus on one contribution at a time.
- Do Not Interrupt Presenters: Allow presenters to complete their delivery without interruption to ensure the full context of the information is shared.
- Hold Questions to the End of Presentations: Please save your questions and comments until the presenter has finished to help maintain the flow and timing of the meeting.
- Be Open-Minded: Approach all discussions with curiosity and a willingness to listen to and learn from different perspectives and lived experiences.
- Give Colleagues the Opportunity to Speak: Practice "sharing the air" by being mindful of how much you speak, ensuring there is space for all members to contribute to the conversation.
